

The Communication and Theatre Arts Department

presents

CASES OF MURDER

November 9, 1938:
A protocol of fear brutality and death

Photo by Gadi Dagon

Ruth Kanner Theatre Group (Tel Aviv University)

This theatrical work is based on Manfred Franke's book Mordverläufe (Cases of Murder). The writer reconstructs the acts of violence committed against the Jewish citizens of his own hometown during the night between the 9th and 10th of November 1938, Krystallnacht. Using a montage of documentary and literary means he reveals and exposes the mechanisms of moral evasion, vague and ambiguous talk and turning blind eyes that made these atrocities possible.

Friday, February 27, 2009

12:30 PM - 2:30 PM

Multi-Purpose Room

2nd Floor, North Hall

Discussion to follow production

JOHN JAY COLLEGE
THE CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK
OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE